XENS' XMAS ENTERTAINMENT.

Three New Members Voted In—Banquet Next Month.

The Xens held its regular Christmas entertainment at the church Friday evening. In spite of the weather the evening was a banner one as to attendance. Mrs. Willey, the president, presided, and the regular business was disposed of.

It was voted to put in electricity in the dining room and kitchen. Walter M. Cowen reported the expense of this work. Three names were voted upon as new members.

The annual banquet was voted to be held as usual in January. Mrs. Amburn, Mrs. William Gilchrist, Mrs. Charles Cobb were made the committee. Walter M. Cowen, chairman.

The entertainment committee for the next three months is Walter M. Cowen, chairman, Mrs. William Gilchrist and Mrs. Jennie Swan.

Santa Claus visited the Xens, hiding parcels in different places about the rooms.

Seated in a circle, a large ball containing numbers with directions to the hiding places was rolled to each member who responded by finding a gift the opening of which made much fun.

An oyster chowder and coffee were served by the committee, Mrs. J. E. C. Leach, Miss Elizabeth Fark and Miss Martha A. Ward.
